

A Guide to the
R.V. “Red” Phillips Collection

CIT 2060

Scope & Contents Note

Phillips developed a lengthy list of associations during his career. He served on the Board of Directors for Citrus World, Inc. for 27 years, and Citrus Central, Inc. for 14 years. Later in his career, he served as a member of the Florida Citrus Commission from 1974 through 1982. He also served as President for the Sales Managers Club and participated in the Florida Packing House Manager's Association, the Florida Tangerine Cooperative, the Florida Council of Farmer's Cooperatives, the Florida Fresh Citrus Shipper's Association, the Growers and Shippers League of Florida, Citrus Industrial Council. He was also a member of the Advisory Board of the United Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Association. He also served in non-citrus organizations, serving as president of the Rotary Club in Haines City, for which he was a member. He was also a member of Covenant Presbyterian Church in Winter Haven and was on the Hesco Corp. Board of Directors. Red Phillips retired in 1977, although he continued to serve with the HCGA as Executive Vice President.

Phillips and his wife Marjorie had a son and two daughters. He passed away on August 28, 1996, and was inducted into the Florida Citrus Hall of Fame in 1983.

Conditions Goveo a/ $! e He s

Language of Materials

English

Arrangement

The materials in this collection are arranged alphabetically and in ascending date order.

Immediate Source of Acquisition

Materials were donated by the Haines City Citrus Growers Association to Thomas Mack of the Florida Citrus Archives in 1998.

Subject Headings

Citrus fruit industry—Florida

Citrus products

Citrus

Citrus fruits—Cooperative marketing

Citrus fruits—Harvesting

Citrus fruits—Marketing

Citrus juice industry

This collection has been processed at a basic level in an effort to make this collection available in the shortest amount of time. Misfiled documents and other errors may be present.

CIT 2045 R.V. "Red" Phillips Collection

